Recruitment Policy

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Effective and consistent recruitment practices are essential to ensure that all applicants are treated fairly and with diversity and equality of opportunity and that costly recruitment mistakes are avoided.
- 1.2 The recruitment process must result in the selection of the most suitable person for the job in respect of skills, experience and qualifications.
- 1.3 This Policy defines the principles that the Company considers important in the recruitment process and aims to ensure that consistency and good practice is applied across the Company.

2. Equality & Diversity in Recruitment

- 2.1 It is against the company's Equality & Diversity Policy and against the law in many cases to discriminate either directly or indirectly on the grounds of race, nationality, ethnic origin, gender, marital status, pregnancy, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, ethnicity, cultural or religious beliefs. Reasonable adjustments to the recruitment process will be made to ensure that no applicant is disadvantaged because of his/her disability.
- 2.2 All employees are required to comply with the requirements of the Equality & Diversity Policy at every stage of the recruitment process including production of job descriptions, advertising material, instructions given to recruitment agencies, shortlisting of applications, interviewing, selection decisions and offers of employment.
- 2.3 All policies and procedures reflect our commitment to achieving and maintaining equal opportunities within the workplace. It is the responsibility of every employee to monitor continually and evaluate formal and informal practices and procedures to ensure that they do not directly or indirectly discriminate against any individual or group of society.
- 2.4 Any employee who is found to be discriminating in any way during the recruitment process will be subject to the disciplinary procedure and may be liable to dismissal.

3. Monitoring Equality & Diversity in Recruitment

- 3.1 In order for us to monitor the effectiveness of the Recruitment and Equality & Diversity Policy it is necessary that all candidates complete the Equality & Diversity Monitoring Form. Any data which is collected regarding gender and ethnic origins will be collected solely for the purpose of monitoring equal opportunity and will be held confidentially by the Company and protected from misuse.

4. Recruitment Authorisation

- 4.1 Any vacancy must be authorised by the Managing Director before any attempt is made to fill the role. In making the request to the Managing Director consideration should be given to whether the role could be absorbed amongst the rest of the team or elsewhere in the Company.

5. Job Descriptions and Person Specifications

- 5.1 Once authorisation has been obtained, the person/manager recruiting must produce a job description for the vacancy which provides a fair and accurate representation of the role and follows the format which is laid out in the Job Description Form. The job description will include a clearly drafted person specification.
- 5.2 The job description will describe the duties, responsibilities and seniority of the post and the person specification will describe the qualifications, knowledge, experience, skills and competencies needed for the role to be carried out effectively.
- 5.3 The Job Description Form should be given to all candidates prior to interview to enable them to prepare adequately for the interview which will improve the success of the interviewing process.
- 5.4 Particular care must be taken when producing job descriptions to ensure that unreasonable requirements are not placed on the job holder which cannot be objectively justified and may unfairly disadvantage certain groups e.g. women, ethnic minorities, elderly or disabled persons.

6. Advertising of Vacancies

- 6.1 All vacancies must be advertised within the Company to all members of staff prior to external methods of recruitment being used. Wherever possible internal candidates will be considered in preference to external candidates and reasonable training and coaching will be provided to enable employees to achieve career advancement. Where it has not been possible to recruit within the Company, then external methods of recruitment may be considered. These may include approaching approved employment agencies or advertising in suitable press.
- 6.2 Where the job is to be advertised, the proposed advertisement must be submitted to the Managing Director for approval. An advertisement must not show any intention to discriminate unlawfully and should follow the Equal Opportunities Commission recommended code.

7. Shortlisting

- 7.1 In order to shortlist candidates for interviews, the Company will:
 - 7.1.1 Identify specific job-related criteria using the job description.
 - 7.1.2 Match these criteria with those detailed in the candidate's CV.
 - 7.1.3 Use this information to select which candidates will be invited for interview.
- 7.2 Candidates who apply for positions with the Company, whether through a direct advertisement or a recruitment agency, will always be informed of the outcome of their application as quickly as possible. Where candidates have applied to the Company directly, they will be informed of the outcome in writing.

8. Recruitment Interviews

- 8.1 The interview will focus on the needs of the job and skills needed to perform it effectively in accordance with the guidance and procedures set down in the Company's recruitment procedures.
- 8.2 Managers conducting recruitment interviews will ensure that the questions that they ask job applicants are not in any way discriminatory or unnecessarily intrusive. A record of every recruitment interview will be made and passed to the Managing Director to be retained for a suitable period of time.

9. Offer of Employment

- 9.1 Once the most appropriate candidate has been selected, this appointment needs to be approved by the director and the terms and condition of the offer of employment will be confirmed.
- 9.2 In setting a starting salary, the Company will bear in mind the salary of existing employees in a similar role in order to ensure that inconsistencies are not created within the Company which could be challenged under the Equality Act 2010.
- 9.3 An offer should be made verbally to the candidate and once agreed, a contract of employment needs to be raised and sent out with the offer letter.

10. References

- 10.1 All employment offers are conditional upon receipt of two professional references which are satisfactory to the Company. The referees should usually be the applicant's current and previous employers, although in the case of a college or school leaver the college tutors or teachers will be acceptable.
- 10.2 Referees will usually be sought from an applicant once an offer of employment is made and referees will not be approached without the applicant's permission.
- 10.3 However, for some positions, the Company may require the applicant to provide details of referees prior to an offer of employment being made. With the applicant's consent, the referees will be approached and the responses received will form part of the selection decision.
- 10.4 References will usually be sought in writing and require that a standard reference form be completed although details may be checked or clarified by telephone where necessary. If a response to a written request for a reference has not been received, then the Company will telephone the referee where the details have been provided and may seek an oral reference instead.
- 10.5 If references which are satisfactory to the Company are not received within a reasonable timescale then it may be necessary to withdraw the offer of employment.

11. The Bribery Act

- 11.1 When recruiting for posts that may be vulnerable to bribery risks (such as roles in Purchasing, Marketing or Distribution), and subject to the requirements of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, the Company may need to carry out additional checks during the recruitment process.
- 11.2 These checks may include carrying out criminal record, bankruptcy and credit reference checks and/or taking up additional references.

12. Qualification Certificates

- 12.1 All applicants are required to provide evidence of qualifications either in the form of original certificates which will be copied and then returned to confirmation from the relevant Examination Board if certificates cannot be produced.
- 12.2 The employment offer will be conditional upon valid evidence of qualification and the offer may be withdrawn if this is not supplied within a reasonable timescale.
- 12.3 If an applicant falsifies certificates or evidence of qualifications and this subsequently comes to the attention of the Company at any stage during employment, then the individual will be subject to disciplinary action and may be liable to dismissal.

13. Work Permits and Illegal Working

- 13.1 It is against the law to employ a person who does not have permission to live and work in the UK. The Company could be prosecuted and fined under the Immigration, Nationality and Asylum Act 2016 for employing somebody who does not have permission to work in the UK.
- 13.2 Therefore, all successful applicants will be required to provide evidence of one original piece of documentation from the list below once an offer of employment is made:
 - 13.2.1 A document giving the person's National Insurance number and name. This could be a P45, a National Insurance card or a letter from a government agency;
 - 13.2.2 A document showing that the person can stay indefinitely in the UK or that they have no restriction preventing them from taking employment. This may be an endorsement in a passport or Home Office Letter;
 - 13.2.3 A work permit or other approval to take employment from the Department for Education and Employment;
 - 13.2.4 A document showing that they are a UK Citizen or have right of abode in the UK. This may be an endorsement in a passport, a birth certificate, a registration or naturalisation document or a letter from the Home Office;
 - 13.2.5 A document showing that they are a national of a European Economic Area country. This may be a passport or national identity card: or
 - 13.2.6 A document confirming registration with the Worker Registration Scheme.
 - 13.2.7 All document checks are performed in line with the Home Office Right to Work Checklist.
- 13.3 In order to avoid discrimination, it is essential that the same criteria are applied to every person who is offered employment with the Company. It will be the responsibility of the recruiting manager to ensure that a relevant document has been supplied which satisfies the criteria set out above.
- 13.4 If an applicant is not able to produce one of the listed documents, then they will be advised to contact the Citizens Advice Bureau for further advice and their employment will be put on hold until evidence can be produced and the offer may be withdrawn.
